

Is your home

on the Green line?

Help your home Go Green, and lower your utility bills, with a FREE home energy assessment from Next Step Living!

- The Town of Brookline has teamed up with energy efficiency leader Next Step Living, to help Brookline residents save money and reduce their carbon footprint. The program is designed to connect eligible* Brookline residents, whether you own or rent, with available rebates and programs that make saving energy at home inexpensive and easy.
- Sign up at the Green Homes Brookline website and take advantage of a FREE home energy assessment which includes:

- Stop at our website to sign up: www.greenhomesbrookline.org
- Sponsored by the Town of Brookline
- Act now to take advantage of this program!

- A comprehensive whole-house diagnostic assessment
- Blower-door test and thermal imaging to pinpoint your home's air leaks*
- Immediate installation of energy efficient improvements
- Carbon monoxide testing
- A detailed report of energy efficiency recommendations and savings
- Up to $3,500 worth of weatherization work - FREE!
- FREE home energy assessment worth up to $500
- Lower your utility bills by $400 - $1,200 a year (on average)
- Access to a 0% Heat Loan

next step living home efficiency, made easy

866.867.8729

www.greenhomesbrookline.org

*Contact Next Step Living for details to ensure your home qualifies as restrictions may apply

Take the Green line to your home.

Owners, renters and residents living in 1-4 unit buildings from all income ranges are encouraged to participate.